Minutes of OCTOBER 3, 2011

Unapproved

Members Present: Rev. Dr. Phyllis Norman, Chair, Eileen Flanagan, Elaine Pizzuto, Richard Cipriano and Inez Bramhall.

Members Absent: Bernice Wilson, Ruby DeCosta and Joe Thompson

Call to Order:

The meeting was called to order by Chair Reverend Phyllis Norman at 10:03 A.M. All members stood for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Approval of Minutes:

Rev. Norman called for the approval of the minutes of August 1, 2011. Motion made by Elaine Pizzuto, seconded by Eileen Flanagan. All in favor Unanimous

Rev. Norman passed out a booklet to each member from our Representative Vickie Nardello. It contains the 2011 Reports on "Laws Affecting Seniors."

Director's Report: None

Unfinished Business:

Rev. Dr. Norman spoke to Mayor Bob about the sidewalk, the alternate member of the Commission on Aging and about the schools. Mayor Bob suggested that a Subcommittee be formed with Rev. Norman On the agenda would be 1.) the sidewalk in back of the Center, 2.) an alternate member and 3.) the schools when vacated.

Bus Reports: None

New Business:

Discussion about the new Sub-committee being formed to meet about the sidewalk, alternate member on the committee and the vacant schools. Looking into also whether one has to be a democrat or republican to be on the Commission on Aging.

Prospect Senior Report:

Inez said the Seniors are very busy. The bus trips are all sold out. We have 934 members right now and people are coming every month to join the center. Many different programs that are making the Senior Center very attractive..

Today members will eat at the Bella Vita in Prospect Tomorrow it will be at the Bark Restaurant. On Wednesday, lunch will be with Betty at the Center for $2.50. On Thursday lunch will be at the Painted Pony and on Friday, Seniors will eat at the Royal Buffet.

Dick Cipriano has supplied the Center with very nice affordable greeting cards. They have gone over very well, they are priced at $.99 and not only do the Seniors like them very much, many people just stop in for them.

Inez mentioned there is no limit on people from Prospect joining, but there is a limit for out of towners.

Public Participation: None

Adjournment: Rev, Norman called for a motion to adjourn. Motion made by Richard Cipriano, seconded by Inez Bramhall to adjourn the meeting. All in favor
Unanimous

The next meeting will be on December 5, 2011 @ 10:00 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Carey Miele
Clerk
